Numb. 9520.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 14, to Saturday October 18, 1755.

Dublin, October 9.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in Great Britain; an Event, which must at all Times fill the Hearts of your Majesty's Subjects with Joy; but particularly at this Time, as it removes their only Fears. Ireland fears no Enemies, but when she imagines your Royal Person is in Danger.

We return your Majesty our sincere Thanks for your paternal Care in appointing his Excellency the Marquess of Hartington our chief Governor: A Person every Way qualified to support the Dignity of his Office; equally zealous for the Prerogative of the Crown, and the Liberties of the People; descended from a great and honourable Father, who dignified the same Office by his just and disinterested Administration; which we, who share in the Advantages it derived to us, do gratefully remember.

We are sensible of the Advantages of his Excellency's coming over to us so early, and at so critical a Conjuncture, his viewing a great Part of this Kingdom, and making himself Master of the true State of Ireland, and the real Interest of your Majesty's Subjects. And we humbly assure your Majesty, that this particular Attention and Care shall, in us, produce their natural Effects, Duty and Zeal in all our Actions, Unanimity and Harmony in all our Counsels, the surest Defence against an Enemy beyond Measure ambitious, and ambitious with such Art, as to take Advantages from the slightest Differences amongst us.

Highly sensible, that to promote the Good of this Kingdom is the surest Method of obtaining your Royal Favour, we assure your Majesty we shall every Way endeavour to promote the Advancement of our Protestant Charter Schools; that we shall give all possible Attention to our Manufactures, particularly the Linen, so essential to the Support of Ireland; and that we will not omit any Opportunity of improving our Commerce and Inland Navigation, and of bringing them to such Perfection, as will give Pleasure to your Majesty, by adding Wealth to your Subjects; who are at all Times ready, with their Lives and Fortunes, to support your Majesty's Government, and to maintain the Succession to the Crown in your Royal Family, on which alone, under God, depends the Continuance of those invaluable Blessings which we received from the glorious Revolution.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

My Lords,

I Will forthwith transmit this dutiful and affectionate Address to His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe Return to your British Dominions; and to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty, and unfeigned Affection.

It gives us the utmost Pain and Anxiety, to think that any of our Proceedings should have occasioned the least Suspicion of the Sincerity of our Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government, or of our having had the least Design to attempt any Encroachment upon your Majesty's Prerogative.

We

[Price Four-Pence.]

We aſſure your Majeſty, that nothing could have been more diſtant from our Thoughts, and that as we always have been, ſo we ever ſhall continue to be, moſt ready and willing to ſupport your Majeſty's Prerogative, and all other the juſt Rights of the Crown, with the ſame Steadineſs and Zeal that we ſhall endeavour to maintain the juſt Rights and Privileges of the People.

We beg Leave, in the moſt humble Manner, to expreſs our Concern at our not having had an Opportunity, the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, of laying our Proceedings before your Majeſty in their proper Light, and of giving your Majeſty the cleareſt and fulleſt Demonſtration of our unbounded Zeal for your Service.

We have the trueſt and moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, and paternal Care, in taking the Circumſtances of this Kingdom into your Royal Conſideration; and acknowledge it as a particular Inſtance of your tender Concern for the Welfare of it, that your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to appoint a chief Governor to preſide over us, of whoſe approved Fidelity and ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty, and your Royal Houſe, we are fully perſuaded; and of whoſe Honour, Integrity, Juſtice, and other eminent Qualities, we have conceived ſo high an Idea; that we promiſe ourſelves, from his juſt and impartial Repreſentation, your Majeſty's true and faithful Commons will appear in ſuch a Light, as to deſerve your Majeſty's Royal Favour and Countenance, which is moſt ardently wiſhed for by us, and without which we ſhould think ourſelves unhappy, in the Midſt of thoſe Bleſſings which all your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy under your moſt benign Influence.

We aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall ſteadfaſtly perſevere in the ſame Sentiments of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection, with which we have been always animated, and which we have always profeſſed, for your Royal Perſon, and Illuſtrious Family; and that we ſhall, on all Occaſions, exert ourſelves, with the utmoſt Vigour, in Support and Defence of the Honour and Dignity of your Crown; and ſhall, as the beſt Evidence we can give of the Purity of our Intentions, and Sincerity of our Hearts, grant, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary for the Maintenance and Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and for the Honour of your Majeſty's Government; and concur in every Meaſure which may contribute to heal the Diviſions which have, for ſome Time paſt, unhappily ſubſiſted amongſt us.

E. Sterling, }
H. Alcock, } Cler. Dom. Com.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will take the firſt Opportunity to tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To his Excellency William Marqueſs of Hartington, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our moſt humble Thanks for your Speech from the Throne.

We acknowledge with Gratitude this late and ſignal Inſtance of His Majeſty's paternal Regard for our Happineſs, in the Choice that He has been graciouſly pleaſed to make of your Excellency to fill the Government of this Kingdom. And we are truly ſenſible of your Excellency's Goodneſs in not delaying to come over to us, at ſo critical a Conjuncture, and in your taking the firſt Opportunity of meeting us in Parliament, in order to concert the proper Meaſures for ſecuring the Tranquillity and Happineſs of Ireland. The great and unuſual Pains that your Excellency has taken, in your Progreſs through the Kingdom, to inform yourſelf of the Situation and Circumſtances of this Country, are evident Proofs of your good Inclination to maintain its Intereſts.

Your Excellency's particular Recommendation to us of the Improvement of our Commerce and Inland Navigation, of the Advancement of our Linen and other Manufactures, and of the Encouragement of our Proteſtant Charter-Schools, gives us the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction. And we rely upon your Excellency's Aſſiſtance and Support in purſuing thoſe Methods, which may beſt contribute to promote theſe deſirable Ends.

Your Excellency's known Attachment to His Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, and to the great Principles of the Revolution, leaves us no Room to doubt of your Excellency's moſt ſincere and ready Endeavours to give Effect to whatever Meaſures may be conducive to the Proſperity and Honour of this Kingdom. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that nothing ſhall be wanting, on our Part, that may teſtify our earneſt Deſire to promote, with all Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, the Eaſe, Security and Honour of His Majeſty's Government, and the publick Welfare, under your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Hen. Baker Sterne, Cler. Parliamentor.

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Return your Lordſhips many Thanks for your affectionate Addreſs; and ſhall endeavour to deſerve the Continuance of your good Opinion, by making the Honour and Happineſs of Ireland the conſtant Object of my Attention.

To

To his Excellency William Marquefs of Hartington, Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addrefs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeffes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, return you our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne; and aſſure your Excellency we have the moſt grateful Senſe of your Care and Concern for our Welfare and Quiet, manifeſted by your coming amongſt us ſo immediately after His Majeſty's Appointment of you to the Government of this Kingdom.

The uncommon Trouble you have had, and the great Vigilance and Wiſdom you have ſhewn, in putting our Affairs in a proper and ſecure Poſture againſt our Enemies foreign and domeſtick, call upon us, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, chearfully to grant ſuch Supplies as may be neceſſary for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment.

The Reliance your Excellency aſſures us His Majeſty has on our Loyalty and zealous Attachment to His Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, gives us at this Time, and will always give us, the greateſt Comfort; and cannot fail of producing, on our Parts, the juſt Returns of moſt affectionate Duty, Gratitude, and Confidence: And we have not the leaſt Doubt, but your Excellency will repreſent us to His Majeſty as deſerving the Continuance of that paternal Goodneſs which we have ſo long and ſo ſenſibly experienced.

We have an intire Confidence in the Aſſurance your Excellency gives us of your Aſſiſtance in procuring all neceſſary Laws for the Improvement of our Commerce and Inland Navigation, and particularly of our Linen Manufacture, upon which the Proſperity of this Nation ſo much depends; and we ſhall not fail to give all proper Encouragement towards the Support of the Proteſtant Charter-Schools; and ſhall concur with your Excellency in every Meaſure conducive to the Happineſs and Honour of this Kingdom.

As the ſincereſt Zeal for the Support of His Majeſty's Government, for the Succeſſion of the Crown in His Royal Family, and for thoſe invaluable Religious and Civil Rights ſettled and entailed on us by the glorious Revolution, has, and ſhall be, the ruling Principle of our Conduct; ſo the committing the Care of this Kingdom to your Excellency, whoſe Anceſtors had ſo remarkable a Share in bringing about and ſupporting that Revolution, and eſtabliſhing that Succeſſion, and who do yourſelf ſo nobly inherit the ſame virtuous Principles, muſt be allowed by all Men as the higheſt Inſtance of His Majeſty's Regard to this Kingdom, and as the happieſt and ſureſt Means of reſtoring that Temper and Unanimity which your Excellency has ſo worthily recommended to us.

E. Sterling, } Cler. Dom. Com.
H. Alcock, }

The Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

NOthing could give greater Satisfaction than the Regard expreſs'd for me in your kind and obliging Addreſs. I ſhall make the beſt Return in my Power, by ſincerely endeavouring, upon all Occaſions, to promote the true Intereſt and Welfare of this Kingdom.

Kenſington, October 18.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Liverpoole, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Liverpoole, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of Liverpoole, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with the ſincereſt Hearts, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return into your Britiſh Dominions.

Your Majeſty's unwearied Zeal for the Welfare of Europe, your parental Concern for the Trade and Commerce of all your Subjects, both here and in America, call for the greateſt Acknowledgments of Gratitude from every Britiſh Breaſt.

And we do rejoice at this Opportunity of repeating to your Majeſty, that we ſhall, with the ſame Alacrity as we have ever done, contribute our utmoſt in Support of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe, and in Defence of your Majeſty's Rights and Dominions, againſt all Attacks and Incroachments whatſoever.

Paſſed under the Common Seal of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, the Seventh Day of October, 1755.

Rome, Sept. 23. The King of Pruſſia, in Conſideration of the Marks of Attention which the Chevalier Coltrolini ſhewed to the Margravine of Bareith, during her Royal Highneſs's Stay in this City, has cauſed a very gracious Letter to be written to him, accompanied with a Preſent of a Snuff Box of very curious Work. An Apartment in the Palace of the Marquis Nunes has been fitted up, with great Expedition, for the Elector of Cologne, who is daily expected in this City. Cardinal Rochefocault has